

6516208393.txt

I would urge you to reject petition 04-160 limiting programming on Sat. radio. The same service that my local radio stations use for traffic and weather are available on the web and through my AT&T phone service. My local radio stations only announce the reports for the morning and afternoon rush hours and major accidents. Construction delays and minor accidents outside these hours are not covered. With the cost of gasoline rising, I need reports that can help me avoid delays.